

13th Moon

Heavenwood

the past is for the vessel`s way my star and we as one will heal our deepest scar can you feel my tongue...painting love in you can you hear my song...driving you now can you take my hand and ride to the neverland can you sing with me words no one will feel cause we are made from the same star this song the road for my get away

don't tell me how it's far (between) me and you made form the same star...me and you sorrow...

a path for words escape my senses are oppressed so i'll write the until the dawn silence... my frame will conquer man's faith i'm suspicious , the silence is all

cause we are made from the same star
