

Me & You

Heavenwood

when...
when is tomorrow?
as the day seems night and the mask still in my hand words... where was your guidance in the night, the wounds i bleed for the sins you need meet me through the hollow remember yesterday

as i`m painted black the wounds i bleed for the sins you need obsolete

today i forgive you...but tomorrow no
the pain i'm living now
as i faint in the snow

the pain is haunting me as the wishes come the name of the nazarene...obsolete

obsolete
