

Dreaming's For Sleeping

Hedley

Walk around singing the blues
Bright red Jimmy Choo's
Where you from girl, tell me where you from girl?
Knock, knock, open the door
What you are wound up for?
You got the whole world girl
You got the whole world

Young thing, been blessed your whole life
You might got that money but you missing what you can't buy
Sweet dreams are sugar and spice
But dreaming's for sleeping and we're staying up all night

Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down

Damn God did good with you
But what good would telling you do?
Where you from girl, tell me where you from girl?
Let me take you out tonight
I'll help you lose your mind
You got the whole world girl
You got the whole world

Young thing, been blessed your whole life
You might got that money but you missing what you can't buy
Sweet dreams are sugar and spice
But dreaming's for sleeping and we're staying up all night

Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down
Let your hair down, and get down

Young thing, been blessed your whole life
You might got that money but you missing what you can't buy
Sweet dreams are sugar and spice
But dreaming's for sleeping and we're staying up all night

Young thing, been blessed your whole life
You might got that money but you missing what you can't buy
Sweet dreams are sugar and spice
But dreaming's for sleeping and we're staying up all night

(I'm talking to you, young thing)
Let your hair down and get down

(I'm talking to you, young thing)
Let your hair down and get down
