

Better Get To Movin'

Heffron Drive

Excuse me while I turn up the volume,
I lost sight of your eyes as someone walked by in the ballroom.
Don't worry girl,
I know just what you need,
a little persuasion just might help you see.
Don't say a word,
just follow my lead,
don't think too much.
Don't forget to breathe,
so grab my hand and bring your friends and ill show you just what I mean.

I want to see you jump on the dance floor,
I want to see you jump on the dance floor,
I want to see whatcha got so common let's roll
oh woah roll oh oh oh oh oh woah woah

Now please excuse for being impatient,
I only wanted to make your acquaintance,
we're building too many walls and not enough bridges.
Because I only want my heart where yours is.
Please repeat your name,
let me hear your voice,
thought I could walk away ,
now I have no choice.
You got me stuck one look,
so hooked on you baby.
Never felt this way.

I want to see you jump on the dance floor,
(now everybody move on the count of four! 1, 2, 1 ,2 ,3 4)
I want to see whatcha got so common let's roll
oh woah roll oh oh oh oh woah woah.
I want to see you jump on the dance floor, I want to see you jump on the dance floor.

I want to see you jump on the dance floor,
now everybody move on the count of four! 1, 2 1 ,2 ,3 4)
I want to see whatcha got so common let's roll
oh woah roll oh oh oh oh woah woah.
I want to see you jump on the dance floor;
I want to see you jump on the dance floor.
