

Hybrid Moments

Helalyn Flowers

There is nothing between evil and love
If the enemy's a part of your life
Even happiness can be full of hate
Living hybrid moments

There is nothing between morning and night
If a part of your regrets is alive
Even innocence can be full of rage
Living a hybrid moment

Such a beautiful cry
For a horrible pain
Such a beautiful mess
In a horrible cell

Such a beautiful night
In a horrible game
Such a beautiful dream
With a horrible end

It's such a beautiful day
Full of horrible lies
It's such a beautiful world
With a horrible fate
It's such a beautiful smile
On a horrible face
It's such a beautiful life
Full of horrible hate

Living a hybrid moment
Living a hybrid moment

There is nothing between pleasure and pain
If you open just a part of your cage

Living a hybrid moment

Such a beautiful cry
For a horrible pain
Such a beautiful mess
In a horrible cell

Such a beautiful night
In a horrible game
Such a beautiful dream
With a horrible end

Full of horrible lies
It's such a beautiful world
With a horrible fate
On a horrible face
It's such a beautiful life
Full of horrible hate
