You And Me Against The World

Helen Reddy

Tell me again mummy

You and me against the world Sometimes it seems like you and me against the world When all the others turn their backs and walked away You can count on me to stay

Remember when the circus came to town And you were frightened by the clown Wasn't it nice to be around someone that you knew Someone who was big and strong and looking out for

You and me against the world Sometimes it feels like you and me against the world And for all the times we've cried I always felt that God was on our side

And when one of us is gone And one of us is left to carry on Then remembering will have to do Our memories alone will get us through Think about the days of me and you You and me against the world

And when one of us is gone And one of us is left to carry on Then remembering will have to do Our memories alone will get us through Think about the days of me and you You and me against the world

I love you mummy I love you too baby
