

Impossible

Helena Zeťová

Twenty four hours to go
You sent me flowers I know
This is the start of something very special
You've got me feeling this good
I wouldn't stop if I could
You're pushing limits, but it feels of natural
Should I play?
Hard to hold
Should I stay?
Should I go?
Give up all self control?

This isn't mission impossible
It's just so logical
This love's unstoppable
Now there's no end inside
'cos what you've got is untakeable
It's unmistakeable
This love's unstoppable
Rock me all through the night

My body shivers to your touch
I'm gonna help you keep it up
We're moving slowly but my heart is racing
I can't believe
I can't resist
All that I crave is in your kiss
All I believe is everything you're saying
Should I play?
Hard to get
Should I stay or regret?
All I feel you can't forget

This isn't mission impossible
It's just so logical
This love's unstoppable
Now there's no end inside
'cos what you've got is untakeable
It's unmistakeable
This love's unstoppable
Rock me all through the night

We're untakeable baby

This isn't mission impossible
It's just so logical
This love's unstoppable
Now there's no end inside
'cos what you've got is untakeable
It's unmistakeable
Rock me all through the night

This isn't mission impossible

'cos what you've got is untakeable
It's unmistakeable
Rock me all through the night
