

You're My Destination

Helene Fischer

You walk on by as if I were just a shadow And it's hard for me to say so But I know you must go You need some time up on the r oad that you are taking So I'll give myself to waiting 'cause I know

You're my destination, you're my fortune, you're my fate Now yo u're a part of me, my destiny, I'm sure And because you're my d estination You'll be coming back one day And when your search c omes to an end one thing is clear I'll be right here

You'll find your way, and you won't be going under Now I'll nev er have to wonder Cause in time you'll be fine You have to do j ust what you're heart has you believing And it's not like you a re leaving me behind

You're my destination, you're my fortune, you're my fate Now yo

omes to an end one thing is clear I'll be right here
