

Welcome

Helia

We're falling stars
We try to give love
We're burning now
Just trying to keep warm
This is for you, for you
For all your smiles
For every fuckin time you were there for me
I swear I won't forget it
Tonight two becomes one
Tonight the time slows down
And we feel alive like the first time
No matter where we'll be
No matter what they say
Don't care about their lies we won't change our mind
Until the end of time we'll be here
Fighting
Screaming
Two against the world
The sun will come
Welcome
And we'll be there together
Watching our last dawn
All the stars don't shine
'Cause the brightest is mine
Goodbye.
