

Wake up

Helker

I didn't want to mistreat you
Or your sweet childhood destroy
I was not that man, no!
Wild restless demon I was
I was isolated in a phoney world
I denied all the power of your light

Then when I woke up
A giant I was
Then when I woke up
You were there with me
In your eyes I found
My whole life moving past incredibly fast
Then when I woke up

Laughing of your true love
My whole life was out of control
I sold my soul
Trying to bury my sorrow
One night I was aching to the easy way out
But at last, the abyss I found

Then when I woke up
A giant I was
Then when I woke up
You were there with me
In your eyes I found
My whole life moving past incredibly fast
Then when I woke up

Then when I woke up
A giant I was
Then when I woke up
You were there with me
In your eyes I found
My whole life moving past incredibly fast
Then when I woke up
