

Five Kids Go

Hell Is For Heroes

Do you have the time to kill
Let's go head for the shore
Do you have the will to jump
Down from the top of the world
If it's easier to burn
Tie me up on a stake

Empty high roads are calling, calling
My defences are slowly breaking them down

Fuck these headstrong scheming plans
Let's go head for the shore
On my last legs i'll take a stand
And jump from the top of the world
If it's easier to burn
Tie me up on a stake
Fire is my only friend

Empty high roads are calling, calling
My defences slowly breaking
Fuck your well-trained golden handshake
All we need is space to roam

All we have left is self-control
All we have to do is pack up and go

So catch me falling if you can
Cut your ties and flush them down
Cos we're tking back the rein
Take control of time
