

Into The Blood

Hell Is For Heroes

Ghost town, watch it all come back to life
With a vengeful smile
Into the blood, drowning into the blood

Midnight, I heard them whispering
Soft ground, be careful where you tread
Wasteland, watch it all come down on your knees
We'll drown in you now

We will not go quietly
Once more into the firing line
Disguises all washed away
These ruins will rise again
