

They Will Call Us Savages

Hell Is For Heroes

Head lights approaching, they come to point me out, Helicopters circling, they'll turn me in,
Run with the hungry, I get trapped between your teeth,
They shine like a razor, a blistering shield,

Hidden treasures never found, they where stolen long ago,
The dark something turns to dust, so eat your heart out, and be proud,
Show compassion in your eyes, when suspiscion lurks behind,
See the shadows shaking hands, they will call us savages...

You let your guard down, i cant help but get sucked in,
Listen to our mentors, they'll guide us to the ring,
Bound for collision, this cause behond control,
Lost in the cycle, figure in the snow...

Hidden treasures never found, they where stolen long ago,
The dark something turns to dust, so eat your heart out, and be
proud,
Show compassion in your eyes, when suspiscion lurks behind,
See the shadows shaking hands, they will call us savages...

The weak cant survive... (15x)
