

Things Fall Apart

Hell Is For Heroes

I look out to the man on the street
And I know what he's thinking
Always knew it would come back to me
I can feel self pity

Devil, keep me locked from the world
The devil, sees me sinking
You better, keep me locked from the world
Rebel, always sinking

Water rising
Souls are bleeding
Lonely Endings
Always nearing

I get out from my head for a while
Just to know what Im thinking
And I know now that my time will come
Keep my side of the bargain

Devil, keep me locked from the world
The devil, sees me sinking
You better, keep me locked from the world
Never, stop me blinking

(So I keep trying to push myself)
Water rising
(So I keep trying to push myself)
Souls are bleeding
(So I keep trying to push myself)
Lonely Endings
(So I keep trying to push myself)
Always nearing
(So I keep trying to push myself)
No more gods and
(So I keep trying to push myself)
No more monsters
(So I keep trying to push myself)
No more pain and
(So I keep trying to push myself)
No more pressure
