

Betrayed by Bones

Hellogoodbye

Oh How could it be
That tendons bound to bones with in my feet
Were bound to believe
That they should move themselves to up and leave
I should say that I'm sorry on their behalf
I should say something funny
But you will not laugh

I didn't see the steps they took
Had taken you from me
Where would we be
If I let myself be swept away to sea
I would cry out to tell you
But you'd not be there
I would cry out to tell you
But you wouldn't care

Oh, I could lead a stationary life
Oh, you will see and you'll believe
My love is carried to you by my feet
My bones are wrong sometimes
Sometimes my bones are wrong

Oh, I know I'm not leavin'
Oh, I know I believe it

Oh how could it be
these tiny things with in your knees bring you to me
and they can keep on moving when you sleep
I know I'm not leaving you all alone
I know I believe it
And So do my bones
And So do my bones
And So do my bones

Oh, I could lead a stationary life
Oh, you will see and you'll believe
My love is carried to you by my feet
My bones are wrong sometimes
