

I Never Can Relax

Hellogoodbye

I saw the city
From the window of an airplane
(I got bummed and I thought
There's nothing except for a lot)
I was too anxious
To get anything accomplished
(My mind floated around
While I tried pulling it down)

But I never can

I have so many things
That I can't find a place for (My head got overrun and
These things are no more fun)
I tried to shake it
But it shook me down completely
(There's no telling right now
But I tried spelling it out)

Oh I fall asleep
But not so easily
As I might
Oh I try to keep
Every little thing
In mind

I poured out all my heart
And that's not the saddest part
All this time
I had thought
There'd be more
But oh it was like
There was nothing to pour
But oh I can't be sure

(Oh, I never can relax)

Oh I fall asleep
But not so easily
As I might
Oh I try to keep
Every little thing
In mind

(Oh, I never can relax)
