

I Saw It on Your Keyboard

Hellogoodbye

There exists a melody
That just might change your mind
Oh! If only I knew the key
To sing to make you mine

Then I saw it on your keyboard
You saw it on my sleeve
Oh! I never knew a heart existed
Outside of make believe
Then I read it on your keyboard
I knew at least that I might have a chance
To catch a shooting star

There exists a star above
That always steals my stare
And there exists a star on stage
That never seems to care

And then I saw it on your keyboard
you saw it in my eyes
Oh! I didn't mean to scare you
You just seem really nice
And then I saw it on your keyboard
I knew at least that I might have a chance
To catch a shooting star.
oo oo oo oo oo, oo oo oo oo oo oo (4x)

There exists a melody
That just might change your mind
Oh! If only I knew the key
To sing to make you mine.

oo oo oo oo oo, oo oo oo oo oo oo (7x)
(There exists a melody that I, know. oh oh oh oh oh oh oh)
