

Hey Lord!

Helloween

(What is it all about?)
Pleasure or pain Cold or fire
Love against disdain
Hope or dipair Truth or liar
Normal or insane
Do you know wat to choose It can't happen you lose
Like the stars need the light No left without right

Hey lord, hey lord Life is striking as you taught
Hey lord, hey lord Time is running, time is short
Hey lord (What is it all about?)

Good or profane Odd or even
All is face to face
Sinner and saint Serve each other
Life is called this place
Do you know what to choose It can't happen you lose
Like the stars need the light No left without right
