

I Believe

Halloween

Give me two strong arms to fight my enemies
Give me two strong eyes to see the truth
Give me two strong legs I think I have to run
And fill my heart with faith that I won't lose
I don't wanna lose

Give me one real love that I don't freeze out there
Make me feel your presence in the night
Give me one strong heart that tells me when I lie
And take my soul so I won't have to hide
I don't wanna hide

it's so cold deep down here
I know we had to fall
Souls are dying everywhere
But whatever I do I believe

There'll be no reason to live
Without you giving me light
There is so much that you give
Your love is shining so bright
I believe...

I wanna love but I always hate
I wanna give but I always take
Want you to laugh but I make you cry
No I won't change until I die
It's so much easier said than done
I know I can't just always run
Got so much anger inside of me
I understand but I think I see what I'm not

I know it's true what J.C. said
I got it all clear in my head
Seems we were born to be unfair
I am a sinner that's starting to dare to believe
Give me your hand until the end
And I will walk into the promised land
I don't deserve anything you do
But I can't stop loving you

No more lies, no false religions
No more whys and wrong God missions
No shiny TV priests begging for cash
No more wars that no God's never asked for

There's a way back out of here
One day we're going home
Tell everyone who wants to hear
Whatever you do:
Do believe, I believe, we believe, believe oh!
