

Long Live the King

Halloween

I wait in the cold
It should have been summer
It will start to rain
It's just not fair
But we are insane
We wait for the thunder
We wait for the pain
With open hair
Now the stage is on fire
Now explodes the air

Ohohohohohohoh
Ohohohohohohoh

Long live the king
Long live the king

We shout every line
We bang to the metal
Some call out his name
He makes the sign
Now the stage is on fire
Now explodes the air

Ohohohohohohoh
Ohohohohohohoh

Long live the king
