

Between You and Nowhere

Hellyeah

y last memory, we were just tryin' to survive.
Ain't what it used to be, no I've grown cold.
Like watching the sun go to bed at the end of a lonely road.
I walked a life right by your side but you couldn't touch me.
I kept my heart up on the top shelf just out of your reach.

Somewhere between you and nowhere,
Is where I always seem to be.
Somewhere between starlight and darkness,
Is where my life's taking me.
Under ashes is where my life's left me.

I can't remember, the day I died.
The tangled web I weave, is not a truth or a lie.
I tryed so hard, but I'm too scarred to let you close
to me.
I'm all smoking mirrors, light of hand
I keep my heart up my sleeve.

Somewhere between you and nowhere,
Is where I always seem to be.
Somewhere between starlight and darkness,
Is where my life's taking me,
Under ashes, where my life left me.

I can't help the way I am....
I'm the smoke you just can't grab...
I was conditioned I wasn't told...
I'm like a light you see, but can't never hold...
Darling I'm so sorry, for me...
Goodbye, I'm so sorry...

Somewhere between you and nowhere,
Is where I always seem to be.
Somewhere between starlight and Darkness,
is where my life's taking me.
Under ashes is where my life's left me..
Under ashes is all that's left of me.
