

Insatiable

Helmet

It's never easy
Being ignored
When you're worshiped
And adored

Attention starved
Inflatable
An ego that is Insatiable

You've always been
So superior
Avoid eye contact
With the mirror

I still admire your
Toned exterior

I need somebody
I need someone that I can imitate
The attention that I crave
It's self esteem that I can almost save

I need somebody
I need someone that I can imitate
The attention that I crave
It's self esteem that I can almost save

I need somebody
I hate
