Helmet

It's never easy
Being ignored
When you're worshiped
And adored

Attention starved Inflatable
An ego that is Insatiable

You've always been So superior Avoid eye contact With the mirror

I still admire your Toned exterior

I need somebody
I need someone that I can imitate
The attention that I crave
It's self esteem that I can almost save

I need somebody
I need someone that I can imitate
The attention that I crave
It's self esteem that I can almost save

I need somebody
I hate
