Best selling advice now you're famous
Fortune earned, this time it's painless
Light's out, show them your peaceful grin
Confess, step up and shed your sin
Say you don't hate
You fix your smile painlessly
Your face, strain you can't recognize
So sad pushing that nervous state
Your brain, you lost it you can't get in
Say you don't hate
Colors vibrate in me
He sings about me
Rock gods aura found tv
Inner glow shit, peaceful harmony
Turn your happy camp away from me
Rainbow bodies vibrate, so absurd
Thanks for your concern you saved the world
