

My Father's Waltz

Hem

Forty years since you washed ashore
Carried out of the sea
On the mast of a man-o-war
That once brought you to me

Throw your overcoat over a chair
And lay all your lazybones down
May this night keep you here
'Til tomorrow