

And Now To Find A Friend

Hemina

Like awakening from some lonesome rift
These bones know not of friendship I'm a pilferer, no I'm not, I'm a liar Just show my name lit up in lights!
So take a glimpse and have a peer at the pressure on this humble man Hear the smashes of glass, hear the shackles bind him to the flashing van

It's a feeling that's inside, a mutuality to find
If this is what one really is,
Mother was right

Save your prayers for me:
a petty thief, a vagabond
And now to find a friend
If I am how he made me,
a crowned jewel,
a baby in a golden basket,
I'm an angel without wings!
Find my friend

Like a pigeon to the plague, my mind already made Just a virgin boy so shy who fell at the sight of green eyes

It's a feeling that's inside,
a mutuality to find
And if she closed her eyes, she'd see her angel lies in me

Save your prayers for me:
If I am how he made me,
a caged fool, an arrow with no direction,
I'm an angel without wings!
Find my friend

If you could turn to me,
then we could share this all
If you would turn to me,
If you could turn to me,
then we could share

Lying under stars with you Lying on the sand with you Be my angel, show me I can feel We escaped my life, now this starts our war
Be my wife, crash me on the shore
Be the friend I never needed more, and make the son we'll never love more

Save your prayers for me:

a petty thief or your soulmate I'm an angel with his wings Found my friend!

Release me from the cold and let me learn to love I live each day in shadows, you sad excuse for divinity!
Let me...I finally found my friend
