

Police Woman

Hepcat

Oh police woman, what can I do
You're the strength and the power of a system,
Working for you
Driving down the street (down the lane)
And to pick me up
You make me take your silly test (down the lane)
Police woman, police woman, police woman...
You're always on my mind...
Police woman, can you be true
And you once were so kind and so gentle
Now, what's come over you
See you in the car and you look so sweet
Smiling all the while, you belittle me
Police woman, police woman, police woman...
You're always on my mind...
Anywhere I go, I feel your presence there
You thrive on negativity and envoking fear
Oh police woman, oh police woman, oh police,
Oh police, oh police, oh police (oh police woman...)
