

Come Serenity

Her Bright Skies

Wipe our memories clean from all of my mistakes let new wounds heal properly and old scars fade away

It's okay to be afraid quiet now, I'm right behind you

Come serenity
(you say we'll work out fine) put a smile on my face (that we will make it out alive)
come serenity
(for what it's worth)
give me a smile give me something I can embrace

Maybe we're at an all time low maybe I'm the last thing you deserve but to tell you the truth you take my breath away
