

Gutter & Scissors

Her Bright Skies

(don't look back)
This is the last time that you will ever see my fake smile so come on let me go (come on let me go) brothers and sisters listen closely now i'm alright
but i'm leaving you tonight

And won't look back cause i i always knew that i would be the messed up one the one that weighs you down and truth be told i'm ready now to see the world with open eyes and all that it's become

Everyone compares you
to something that you're not you said it would be easy you said it makes you strong

So can you feel the blood running through my veins the memories will stay with me forever we are not the same something you can't change so have your way with me

Truth be told i'm ready now to walk this soil with new found hope and hold my head up high

(it will make you strong)

Have your way with me
