

Killing Me

Her Bright Skies

Did i make a clean escape? or will i feel you pull me back again?
the choices made have left a bitter taste but i never told you should have told you

Got this city on it's knees and i think i like it

Can't you see that this is killing me?
cause every line in every song reminds me of where i belong can't pretend that what you said back then was nothing more than desperate lies so i turn my back and say goodbye

(alright!)
You'll never bring me down

So will i make it through the night? the things i used to hold on to they're all gone
the choices made have left a bitter taste
but i never told you
should have told you

Walk away turn and watch as it falls to the ground the sky opens up to swallow you whole

(this city never forgets a face and i've spent too long in this awkward place all i want is to be free cause you're all fucking dead to me)

Baby, tell me
can't you see that this is killing me?
reminds me of where i belong
