

Sweet Sweet Revenge

Her Bright Skies

These voices again, they're getting louder.
They're talking about sweet revenge. Well, I can do better, yeah

If you got something to say, come on and say it
Whatever you want from me, come here and get it.

Cause if you wanna stop me

You'll have to kick me down and beat me up
But I'm always gonna get back on my feet.
You'll have to slit my throat and break my bones
Cause I'm never gonna let you get to me.
So bring it on.

You should be looking over your shoulder. I might be behind ya.

You tell yourself that there's nobody out there but I'm right here waiting.

Think you got somewhere to be? So go on get out of my face,
Whatever you said to me. I won't forget it! get it?

Cause if you wanna stop me

You'll have to kick me down and beat me up
But I'm always gonna get back on my feet.
You'll have to slit my throat and break my bones
Cause I'm never gonna let you get to me.

I should turn the page and walk away
But I know that things won't ever be the same.
I should turn the page and walk away
Cause I'm never gonna let you get to me.

Yeah, I'm right here waiting
Yeah, I'm right here waiting

You'll have to kick me down and beat me up
But I'm always gonna get back on my feet.
You'll have to slit my throat and break my bones
Cause I'm never gonna let you get to me.
So bring it on.

Yeah, I'm right here waiting
Yeah, I'm right here waiting
