

No More Good Ideas

Her Space Holiday

Tonight, I'm finding for me it's getting harder and harder to sleep

I drained all my pens and filled all my pads

But these words keep coming again and again

And if timing is everything, well then what does that say about you and me

Was it our broken watch or busted start

I guess the time that we need is time apart

Let's get older, let's get wiser, so you can call me and I'll answer

And I'll say, "Dear, I was just thinking of you."

And we'll laugh like just like we used to

I know you're angry, you know I miss you

We know we both need something different

No need to argue, life will not listen

It doesn't give a damn what we're wishing for

Let's be honest, let's be truthful

We're a train wreck and this is not new

I would reach out and you would pull back

We reversed it and then we jumped off the track

I know you loved me, you know I loved you

We know we didn't know what to do with that

So, when you meet him, just take it easy

No need to worry it will be different

I know you loved me, you know I loved you

We know we didn't know what to do with that

So when you meet him, just take it easy

No need to worry

There are no more good ideas in me

There are no more good ideas in me

Did I leave them with you
