

This Seat Is Definitely Taken

Her Space Holiday

Here we are face to face
I guess now is the time and the place
To let you know I got a thing for you
Apparently your boyfriend does too
So on that note I'll bid you both adio

Here I am alone with my thoughts
And somehow all my plans got lost
No candle dinners or trips for two
Just an empty bed for an emptier fool
This whole scene is lonely life approved

Here it is one year to the day
I guess now is the time and the place
To let you know I'm completely over you
Apparently your ex-boyfriend is too
I guess my timing needs to be improved

And this seat is definitely taken
And I feel that life's big equation
Is less adding and more about subtracting
One plus one is all that I'm asking for

And these hands are definitely shaking
With the goodbyes that I keep waving
I press my pen perfectly to paper
To make the letter that I'll never send her
