

Full Moon

Herbert Grönemeyer

Full moon, i'm drunk as a skunk so mad about her, you can see the depths to which i've sunk can't stand the days, at night i call her name prowl around the neighbourhood, the hunter captured by the game i've been trying to steal her heart for so long

She's stubborn but so am i i want her more as each and every day goes by be my ally, conquer her pride we two together could besiege her heart from every side be my friend, don't let her slip through my hands

Cast your spell upon her, i'll stalk through her dreams so i can find her there defenceless, surrendering her love to me and if you do this for me - oh what delight i'll turn into a werewolf then and howl to you throughout the night

Full moon, shine down your light on me full moon, make me her lunacy you know she doesn't want me but you can turn the tide i can't go on without her so quickly, make her mine full moon, hear my lonely cry

You're so pale, i'm deathly white if nothing happens soon i don't think i can last the night from up in heaven you stare down on us serene i'm in desperation, and i'm begging you to rescue me do something now, tomorrow will be too late

My last hope's in your power, listen to my plea and help me now to win her heart or it'll be the end of me i'm drowning in the tears that all true lovers shed don't leave me in this limbo, moon don't leave me in this loneliness

Full moon, shine down your light on me
you know she doesn't want me but you can turn the tide

Come and make her want me the man of her dreams
so i can find her there defenceless surrendering her love to me
and if you do this for me - oh what delight

you know she doesn't want me but you can turn the tide
