

Hold Me

Herbert Grönemeyer

You've made my dreams seem like real life everyone comes true reality's unfocused, i've lost myself in you warm me with tender whispers oh, now enfold me in your arms

Hold me these few moments just until sleep comes

I feel so safe beside you, your heart next to mine I want to enjoy this moment till the end of time so good to feel you by me, good fortune overflows I willingly surrender, find comfort in your arms

I'm beside myself with joy feel i could float away with you weightless, carefree, deep in love, it's ecstasy

Rain on me your kiss of fire call up the storm the night's so short take me, i want to be overwhelmed by you so good to have you here

Come and tell me all there is to know I'll never tire of listening never let you go

Breathe life into my body and drown me in your arms hold me these sweet moments just until sleep comes hold me just until sleep comes
