

Boy Blue

Hercules and Love Affair

Ravaged after my war
When I came to know you
I was a young boy blue
I was a young boy blue
I was a young boy blue
This song is sung for you

This song is sung for me
This song is sung for you

Blue was the color I saw
After we began to talk
I could not see much else
I was a young boy blue
I was a young boy blue
This song is sung for you

This song is sung for me
This song is sung for you

I'm grateful for the words you chose
I'm grateful for the heights to which you rose
I'm grateful for the words you chose
I'm grateful for the heights to which you rose
