

The Legend Of The Rent Is Way Hardcore

Here Comes the Kraken

It's our last wine

We have been destroying
And fighting in too many wars

Two opposite sides
Defeating a worthless Caus

Trying to kill each other
Taking lives
Running over Blood

Burning souls
Taking lives
Running over blood

We lost Friends
Everyday felling alone
Nothing to loose

God sake
Forsaken
Maybe tonight
It's our last wine

I can't wait to be face to face
I saw you a few times
God sake
Forgive all my mistakes
Because maybe tonight
It's our last wine

I see myself in your eyes
Closer to you
Tomorrow it's a goood day
And one of us could die
Confronting us
Will make us realize what we are

Just the victory is what matters
Take this bullet
Carbombs and cannions

It's hard to belive
That I found death
In my Brother hands

Tomorrow is a good day
And one of us could die

Closer

Tomorrow it's a good day
And one of us could die
Confronting us
Will make us realize

I can't wait to fight
Face to face

I saw you a few times
I hate you but i can't kill you
I see myself in your eyes
I see myself in your eyes

I can't wait to fight
I saw you a few times
I see myself in your eyes
I see myself in your eyes

God sake
Forsaken
It's our last Wine
