

And So We'll Be With The Lord Forever

Here I Come Falling

You could have fled
And who could have blamed you
But You chose to stay
And bear the weight
That I had placed upon you

But father I can't understand
How You could ever love me
When I'm so undeserving
And unworthy of anything