

The Sea Gave Up The Dead

Here I Come Falling

The view gets so lonely
Looking down from heaven's gates
Into the wasteland we've become
The morning sun will all but wake the dead

Throw open the coffin door
You've been buried alive
Stand up, tell the world
Your eyes are open

The earth will tremble as we walk
The dead stand to their feet
Raise your eyes
Search the skies for a sign
And pray

Oh, God I can't quite shake this
The world is creeping in
Just put me back in the ground
In the ground

Oh, I'm surrounded by these demons
Lord come rescue me
I'll stand and fight
With angels by my side

Your love is loud and deafening
But God this cross gets hard to bear
