This love of mine is far too strong for me to understand Try so hard - to find a way to keep it in my hand She got me tied, she got me blind & me I lost command this love of mine is just too strong
for me to understand

& everytime she's gone
I can't get her out of my head I can't get loose, I just can't move an inch from her

the way she moves grooves walks talks gets out of hand the way she takes her place the way she smiles
the way she radiates
