

Under Perfect Control

Herrschaft

UNDER - PERFECT - CONTROL !
UNDER - PERFECT - CONTROL !

Now can you see, can you feel, can you just imagine,
What could be this world without authority?
Could you breath, could you laugh, could you fulfill your dreams,
If We weren't here to control you?

"The control of movements of citizens and their approval by authorities has now become a necessity. Automated control points have been dispatched all over the major center, ensuring that the shining light of our city remains unstained by unwanted perturbations".

You are under perfect control,
We are those who're leading you now,
Your eyes open, lost in darkness,
No divine white light to show you,
Which is the right way to follow...

INCORPORATION ! INCORPORATION !

UNDER - PERFECT - CONTROL !
UNDER - PERFECT - CONTROL !

Now can you see, can you feel, can you just imagine,
What could be this world without a strong army ?
Could you breath, could you laugh, could you fulfill your dreams,
If We weren't here to hold you all ?

INCORPORATION ! INCORPORATION !
