

In our world everything's perfect
Zero error - main rule of life
The raised head watching our art
Proud to be modern human sons

We all are the new generation
Living symbols of the new era
Forget your visions of disorder
This is the birth of the new order

We don't have to remember
The last centuries are all forgotten

Masters !
Valliant !
Now we are, eternal!

Masters !
There's no more place to submission
Valliant !
We're rising 'till domination
Now we are, eternal

We control everything we do
Perfection's what we've created
The eyes open watching ourselves
In this mirror made of white light

There's no more place to human decline
2000 pages have just been turned
The first chapter has just been ended
Ancient values now belong to ruins

We don't have to remember
The last centuries are all forgotten

Masters !
Valliant !
Now we are, eternal!

Masters !
There's no more place to submission
Valliant !
We're rising 'till domination
Now we are, eternal!

Masters !
There's no more place to submission
Valliant !
We're rising 'till domination
Masters !
There's no more place to submission
Valliant !
We're rising 'till domination

Now we are, eternal !
Now we are, eternal !
