

Buildings are collapsing - sanctuaries dying in flames
Now I can feel my blood - which is flowing on my face
There's nothing I can do - my eyes are black and humans are al l blind now

The end arrived
In the eye of Vortex

There is no forgiveness - for animals and crawling worms
We are imploring God - he doesn't answer to our tears
Forever sacrificed - now it is time to pay for our glory

The end arrived
In the eye of Vortex

The storm is now devastating everything
Which could be a trace of our civilization
So powerful and so strong
That she drove us toward our deconstruction

The end arrived
In the eye of Vortex
The end arrived
We are the creators of our death
