

The Switch

Hey Mercedes

I'm a nervous wreck
Hey I'm a tightrope
Because the drones left intact and
Came back broke
With broken bones
All alone
They buzzed from the bus and
Flew home
They were only trying for the highest score
Give em more
Jen sends her love
And this message
For more fun sighs eyes and
Less lies
Well I have to say
Jenny darling
Love to you and
More truth
Meanwhile I'll try for the highest score
Give me more
It gets so hard to get out of bed
When your hands are terminally tied
I've got one idea and
So maybe this time I'll do it right
If it takes all night
We were only trying
Only trying
We were only trying for the highest score
