

Act The Part

Hey Violet

I'm a little selfish with a lot to give
I'm a broken bone, I'm a losing bid
I know you want me in, in my place

I'm damaged bliss, I'm an unknown voice
Make you feel less alone, but I'm not your toy
I know you want me out, out of your face

I can smile for the camera
I can feed you my heart
I can lie lovin' at ya
I can act my part
And it's not the way I wanted it to be
But no one ever asked me
So I smile for the camera
And I act my part
Whoa

Under my skin written in my blood
There's a secret I keep, it's not your love
I know you don't know me at all
I'm a little bit bruised living in the lies
But your hunger for more and I can paint my disguise
I'll be your fight, be your fall

I can smile for the camera
I can feed you my heart
I can lie lovin' at ya
I can act my part
And it's not the way I wanted it to be
But no one ever asked me
So I smile for the camera
And I act my part
Whoa

And under everything I hide away
Buried deep, another face
All the secrets you will never know
Knooow

I can smile for the camera
I can feed you my heart
I can lie lovin' at ya
I can act my part
And it's not the way I wanted it to be
But no one ever asked me
So I smile for the camera
And I act my part
Whoa
