

Desire

Hey

Desire!
That's all what I feel
When I'm looking at You
Desire
Do You know what I mean
It's like a fire
I'm eaten up by my desire now
Desire
I feel desire deep in my mind
You're thinking
That my love for You is a real love
You're such a fool
I love your body but not your soul
Tomorrow
I will sleep with another guy
In my bed
So kiss me
Before I'll show You dear my door
But don't be afraid
'Cause You can buy me
I love a money
Like every strumpit
On the world
Just give me a cash
It may be dollars
And take a room
Take off your clothes
Enjoy my body
You ask me
Do I know what is love
Believe I know
I tell You something now
I love only myself
I'm just thinking
That I'm the most important
Thing in my life
So get out of here
Before I destroy
And help You to die
