

Second Chance

Hezekiah Walker

Lord, I need to feel the touch of Your hand,
your will for my life I want to understand.
Lord, forgive me like only You can,
for You're the God of a second chance.

Lord, I'm tired of the way that I am,
in Your love I want to live instead
to heed to Your every command,
for You're the God of a second chance,
for You're the God of a second chance.

Show me all of my wrongs,
forgive me and make me strong.
Oh, save me, restore my song,
for You're the God of a second chance,
for You're the God of a second chance.

You gave me a second chance.
You forgave me like only You can.
You gave me a second chance, oh.

for You're the God of a second chance.
