

I'm living in the city, it has everything.
Many cultures, many stories, and pretty girls.
Don't wanna go back, don't wanna regret.
Don't wanna get up early to work hard.
My youth comes only once in life.
My life is my own choices.
The years go by before I know,
so I don't wanna miss the chance.

Now I am enjoying my new lifestyle.
But my place is like a rabbit house.
I am enjoying my new lifestyle.
Go my own way.

An old lady moved to the place next door.
She's a widow, a pensioner and has many hardships.
Don't wanna see that story, don't wanna feel blue.
Don't wanna see my future after 30 years.
My youth comes only once in life.
My life is my own choices.
The years go by before I know,
so I don't wanna miss the chance.

Now I am enjoying my new lifestyle.
But my place is like a rabbit house.
I am enjoying my new lifestyle.
Go my own way.
