

Please Please Please

Hi-Standard

You're the only mirror for me
When you comfort me
I realize I'm feeling bad
You're the only mirror for me
When you smile at me
I realize I'm feeling alright

Please please please, stay here by my side
Please please please, cause I love you
Please please please, give me your true love
Please please please, cause I love you

You're the only mirror for me
When you shed a tear
I realize I'm feeling sad
You're the only mirror for me
When you laugh out loud
I realize I'm feeling so high

OK, so you know everything about me
My habits, my dream, my life story
You know and care about who I really am
But one part of me is afraid to take your love
OK, so I'm always watching out for you too
Don't you know it's true I'm your biggest fan
I can't say it well, I hope you understand
I want you always to be happy
