

Christmas Song

Hidden in Plain View

So with the lights down I'll be waiting
All alone with my records playing
A lonely song on this lonely Christmas Eve
A late December never seemed
So cold in New Jersey

It's so hard to feel anything in the spirit of everything
So I won't bother hanging up these decorations
All the lights are wrapped around the christmas tree
They tangle next to the mess you made of me
I promise you I'll hang them up next year

This holiday doesnt mean anything anymore
(Cause I'm all alone)
(Anymore)
This holiday doesn't mean anything anymore

So with the lights down I'll be waiting
All alone with my records playing
Goodbye Sky Harbor all night on this Christmas Eve night
Because I never said the holiday wishes I never meant
I never meant

This holiday doesnt mean anything anymore
(Cause I'm all alone)
(Anymore)
This holiday doesn't mean anything anymore

(da dada da da da dada da da)

This holiday doesn't mean anything anymore
(Cause i'm all alone)
(Anymore)
This holiday doesn't mean anything anymore
